

Data sources for Illinois District Profiles, 2016

	Data Source
Demographic Information
Total population	2014 American Community Survey, 5-year estimates
Children under age 6 &amp; preschool age children (3-5)	2014 American Community Survey, 5-year estimates
Families with young children (under age 6)	2014 American Community Survey, 5-year estimates
Percent of children under 6 living in households where all parents work	2014 American Community Survey, 5-year estimates
Median family income (for families with children under 18)	2014 American Community Survey, 5-year estimates
Children under 6 eligible for Child Care Assistance	Illinois Action for Children estimate based on 2014 American Community Survey
Child Care &amp; Early Education Data
Preschool for All children served and number of sites	FY14 data (2013-2014 school year) from IECAM, http://iecam.crc.uiuc.edu/
Head Start funded enrollment and number of sites	FY13 data (2012-2013 school year) from IECAM, http://iecam.crc.uiuc.edu/
Cost of child care	Average cost of full-time annual care for 50 weeks per year. Data from the Illinois Network of Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies, June 2015. Prepared by Illinois Action for Children.
Child care centers and slots &amp; licensed homes and slots	Data from the Illinois Network of Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies, June 2015. Prepared by Illinois Action for Children.
License-exempt homes receiving Child Care Assistance payments	Illinois Department of Human Services Child Care Assistance Program, June 2015. Data prepared by Illinois Action for Children.
Families with Child Care Assistance &amp; Total Payments	Illinois Department of Human Services, FY15 (July 2014 through June 2015)
Children with Child Care Assistance	Estimate based on the typical number of children per family, which is 2.